

RiteCare™ Clinics

Communication provides an enormously enriching dimension to our lives by allowing us to convey our needs, desires, feelings and ideas to one another. Concerned parents of a child with a perceived communication deficit may turn to RiteCare™ for evaluation and therapy to effectively meet their needs.

The Hastings Valley Scottish Rite Foundation has been dedicated to helping children with speech and language disabilities through the RiteCare program. The RiteCare™ clinic is located at Hastings Masonic Center where thousands of children have been treated by dedicated and committed licensed speech therapists. Since 1975, Scottish Rite Masons have contributed more than 20 million dollars to Nebraska RiteCare™ Clinics, providing essential services to children, at no expense to their families.

The Hastings Valley Scottish Rite Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit located at 411 N. Hastings Avenue in Hastings, and donations are tax-deductible to the full extent allowed by law.
